KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Interest Rate Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of bonds and stocks/equities. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the bonds and stocks/equities.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Reinvestment Risk:	The possibility of having lower returns or earnings when funds mature and are reinvested. Investors in the UITF who redeem and realize their gains run the risk of reinvesting their funds in an alternative investment outlet with lower yields. Similarly, the UIT fund manager is faced with the risk of not being able to find better yielding alternative investment outlets as some of the securities in the fund matures.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in high-credit quality assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Hopes of a Santa Clause Rally fizzled as the local equities market ended its 2-month winning streak on the back of net foreign selling, renewed hawkish comments from the FED as well as Corporate Governance issues from a key telco player. In December, the PSEI lost its footing, ending lower by -3.16% MoM, and down -7.81% by year end 2022, marking its 3rd consecutive yearly decline amid net foreign selling of Php67.8bn or USD1.2bn for the year, which partially fueled the risk-off stance across market participants. Nevertheless, average daily trading volume improved MoM to Php12.34bn vs the previous Php6.63bn. The BSP continued to match the FED's policy hikes, raising rates by another +50 bps in hopes of bringing down inflation to their target whilst signaling the fight to stave off inflation is not yet over, which could warrant for more policy tightening but on a much slower pace. That said, December PH inflation came in at 8.1%, which is slower than consensus estimates but still among multi-year highs mainly due to surging food prices brought partially by seasonally high demand during the holidays season.

Since the December BSP 50bps hike by both the BSP and the FED were widely expected already, GS yields were down by an average of 16bps led by the belly to the long-end of the curve as market players position their portfolios already for next year. The 7y and 10y BVAL were both down 21bps MoM, while the 20y BVAL was down 35bps MoM. The Bureau of Treasury only had 1 TBL auction and 2 Bond auctions for the month. The averages for the 5y and 12y auctions this month were lower by 56bps and 98bps respectively versus the awarded averages in November. The BTr will offer Php200Bn total worth of TBLs and bonds in January, higher than the Php135Bn target size last month. The BTR's January bond borrowing program will cover 7Y, 13Y, 20Y, and 10Y bonds, with whispers of a potential jumbo RTB issuance in the 1st quarter of 2023.

For the month, most sectoral indices were down with the spotlight on the services sector (-7.51% MoM) amid PLDT Inc.'s (TEL) budget fiasco wherein the company disclosed a Php48bn overrun on CAPEX spread over the last 4 years. This dampened sentiment on TEL's management credibility, which saw its shares plummeting by a massive -24.8% MoM. Nevertheless, TEL managed to partially erase some of the losses after it held a briefing clarifying that the overrun was due to overspending and not fraudulent activities.

For the whole of 2022, notable performers were SCC which rose +61.6% as the company's earnings tripled, benefitting from high coal prices and volume growth. AP too was a market leader up +14.7% following the company's capacity expansion amidst a tightening supply outlook starting 2023. Meanwhile, CNVRG and ACEN were hammered -50.2% and -30.7% respectively following private placements soured that dampened market's appetite for the stock. New index-member MONDE lost -31.6% due to the poor performance of its healthy product Quorn as well as a product recall of Lucky Me in Europe.

The equity funds continue to favor resilient banking names due to their defensive nature amid elevated interest rates as well as select consumer and power names which are poised to benefit from the demand recovery during the reopening.
