KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Interest Rate Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of bonds. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the bonds.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Reinvestment Risk:	The possibility of having lower returns or earnings when funds mature and are reinvested. Investors in the UITF who redeem and realize their gains run the risk of reinvesting their funds in an alternative investment outlet with lower yields. Similarly, the UIT fund manager is faced with the risk of not being able to find better yielding alternative investment outlets as some of the securities in the fund matures.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in high-credit quality assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The month of August brought some negative news to market players. We opened the month with news that the US Treasuries lost their AAA rating as Fitch joined S&P in lowering their rating to AA+. Fitch criticized US' ballooning fiscal deficits and an erosion of governance that has led to repeated debt limit clashes over the past two decades. By mid-month, the July FOMC minutes was released which showed that there was broad support for the decision to raise the federal funds target range by 25bps to 5.25%-5.50% at the conclusion of its July 25 to 26 policy meeting. The minutes also showed that most FED officials see significant upside risks to inflation and may opt for more tightening. Two officials opted for a no hike in July, and the FED staff scrapped its recession call while seeing a smaller jobless-rate rise. Economists from the FED expect a small rise in the jobless rate over the next two years and warned commercial real estate fundamentals may worsen. On domestic news, second quarter GDP disappointed in a big way; growing 4.3% YoY, much slower than the market expectation of +6.0%. On a quarter-on-quarter basis, the economy contracted by 0.9% as high inflation and the lagged impact of previous monetary tightening weighed on economic activity. This was the slowest pace of expansion since 2011, with growth momentum slowing due to a challenging global landscape, price pressures, muted fiscal stimulus and elevated borrowing costs. Overall, this was a disappointing report with the slowdown evident in all major sectors of the economy. BSP Gov. Eli Remolona, in his first meeting as BSP governor, was likely mindful of the slowing growth momentum. The BSP kept rates steady (for the third straight meeting) at 6.25%. Said policy rate is still the highest in more than 16 years or since May 2007 when RRP was at 7.50%. Meanwhile, August inflation accelerated to 5.3% from 4.7% in July, bringing 8M average to 6.6%. The BSP expects inflation to slow further in the coming months with headline inflation expected to settle within target range of 2% to 4%. Gov. Remolona, reiterated the BSP's readiness to hike policy rates if necessary while remaining data-dependent. The BSP pushed up its inflation forecast, likely due to the developments in global energy and food prices to 5.6% (from 5.4% in June) for 2023 and 3.3% (2.9%) for 2024. The uptrend in headline inflation was mainly influenced by the 8.1% YoY increase in the heavily-weighted food and non-alcoholic beverages index (from 6.3% in July).

The yield curve moved sideways for the month, as yields were just up by an average of 2bps across the curve. The belly bonds' yields decreased the most, particularly the 4y BVAL which was down by 8bps, closing the month at 6.20% versus 6.28% in July. In the August TBL auctions, the BTr fully awarded the issue size of PhP 75Bn. Yields were higher by an average of about 8bps across the 3 tenors. For the TBonds, the BTr issued a new 10y bond for the month, FXT1071, with a final coupon rate of 6.625%, while rejecting the 15-year auction (Re-issuance of FXT2023). The BTr plans to sell government securities in September, aiming to raise PhP 180Bn. The TBond issuances will have tenors of 3y, 7y, and 10y. The bond funds actively participated in the auctions for the month, specifically to the longer-dated issuances, to continue to lengthen duration and maintain overweight versus benchmark.
