KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Interest Rate Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in interest rates. The purchase and sale of a debt instrument may result in profit or loss because the value of a debt instrument changes inversely with prevailing interest rates.
Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of bonds. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the bonds.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Reinvestment Risk:	The possibility of having lower returns or earnings when funds mature and are reinvested. Investors in the UITF who redeem and realize their gains run the risk of reinvesting their funds in an alternative investment outlet with lower yields. Similarly, the UIT fund manager is faced with the risk of not being able to find better yielding alternative investment outlets as some of the securities in the fund matures.
Foreign Exchange Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. The exchange rates depend upon a variety of global and local factors, e.g. interest rates, economic performance, and political developments.
Country Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses arising from investments in securities issued by/in foreign countries due to the political, economic and social structures of these countries. There are risks in foreign investments due to the possible internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations and tax increases of the foreign country involved which are difficult to predict but must be taken into account in making such investments.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in high-credit quality assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

THE UIT FUND IS NOT A DEPOSIT AND IS NOT INSURED BY THE PHILIPPINE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION (PDIC).

RETURNS CANNOT BE GUARANTEED AND HISTORICAL NAVPU IS FOR ILLUSTRATION OF NAVPU MOVEMENTS/FLUCTUATIONS ONLY.

WHEN REDEEMING, THE PROCEEDS MAY BE WORTH LESS THAN THE ORIGINAL INVESTMENT AND ANY LOSSES WILL BE SOLELY FOR THE ACCOUNT OF THE CLIENT.

INVESTMENT POLICY

The Fund may be invested and reinvested in the following instruments:

- USD-denominated deposits
- Other money market instruments
- Government Securities
- Corporate Bonds
- Other investments allowed under BSP regulations

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The market's over-optimism on Fed cuts ignites volatility.

To kick off 2024, participants are once again moving too far ahead of the curve by pricing in 6 rate cuts, despite the resilience of the U.S. economy; such cuts would imply a U.S. recession. The Federal Reserve remains patient and cautious about loosening policy rates, as cutting too soon may prompt inflation to inflect from its current downtrend. The Fed hinted at only 3 cuts in 2024. In January, the central bank kept rates unchanged at four-decade highs of 5.25% to 5.5%. As of end January, the probabilities for a March 2024 rate cut has diminished from 70% to 50% with consensus slowly shifting the first cut to May.

The impressive resilience of the U.S. economy can be attributed to the structural shift stemming from the pandemic. The Fed has successfully restricted December Core PCE to 2.9% YoY without a significant uptick in unemployment, while growth for 4Q-2023 printed at a notable 3.3% QoQ.

Recent developments seem supportive of a soft landing, with personal consumption expanding 2.8% QoQ on the back of improving consumer confidence, from 110.7 to 114.8. However, consumer debt continues to rise, with credit card delinquencies reaching levels last seen before the pandemic hit.

While markets continue to price in a recession with the yield curve inversion of 29bps between the U.S. 2Y and 10Y, leading Economic Indicators (LEI) manufacturing and services PMI expanded to 50.7 and 52.9, respectively, in January.

Following the year-end rally in both bonds and equities, 10Y yields inched lower to 3.91% MoM, but mixed data and geopolitical tensions contributed to the wide 3.86% to 4.20% monthly range. The developing view of the Fed seems to favor deferring rate cuts, prompting the dollar index to rise from 102.2 to 103.27. Tensions in the Middle East triggered WTI to jump 7.77% month-to-month from USD70.38 to USD75.85.

Currently, the fund is poised to extend duration as yields rise from the market's rate cut over-optimism. Additionally, the fund is capitalizing on favorable dollar time deposit rates, offering a 60-day yield of 5.20%.
