Principle 15: A mechanism for employee participation should be developed to create a symbiotic environment, realize the company's goals and participate in its corporate governance processes.
Recommendation 15.1
1. Board establishes policies, programs and procedures that encourage employees to actively participate in the realization of the company's goals and in its governance	COMPLIANT	Employee Engagement Keeping employees engaged starts with making sure they feel heard. That's why we offer multiple ways to connect—regular check-ins with supervisors, HR discussions, Facebook Workplace's HR Helpdesk, performance reviews, town halls, sector meetings, conventions, and the Purple Hearts Club for volunteerism. Each business unit also holds town halls and performance discussions, giving employees a space to share insights and suggestions. Our Employee Feedback Portal on Insight Online provides another channel, where the Business Systems Division responds to concerns. Workshops help teams identify key programs and projects that align with their strengths. Employees can also post questions and feedback in Workplace helpdesks managed by different business units. These teams handle inquiries or direct them to the right group. BU-specific town halls, focus group discussions, and performance meetings further encourage open conversations about workplace experiences and improvements. Every two years, we run a bank-wide engagement survey to measure employee experience. Metrovoice, our official survey, allows Metrobankers to share feedback anonymously. In October–November 2024, we conducted a Metrovoice Pulse Survey, gathering insights from 7,466 employees—56% of those who responded in 2023. This helped track progress and identify areas for action before the 2025 Metrovoice Survey in April.
