KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of stocks/equities. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the stocks/equities.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Country Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses arising from investments in securities issued by/in foreign countries due to the political, economic and social structures of these countries. There are risks in foreign investments due to the possible internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations and tax increases of the foreign country involved which are difficult to predict but must be taken into account in making such investments.
Index Tracking Risk:	The possibility for the Fund not being able to achieve a level of return that closely mirrors the index being tracked due to operational and fund management expenses.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

THE UIT FUND IS NOT A DEPOSIT AND IS NOT INSURED BY THE PHILIPPINE DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION (PDIC).

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The fund increased by 8.33% in April. The ceasefire between US and Iran triggered one of the fastest V-shaped recoveries in history. The vicious rally was US-led and technology sector driven. The AI trend remains the primary driver of growth resilience.

The People's Bank of China (PBOC) kept its benchmark rates unchanged for an eleventh consecutive month in April. The 1-yr loan prime rate, the benchmark for corporate and household borrowing, was maintained at 3%. The 5-yr rate, the anchor for property was held at 3.5%. The war between US and Iran has dented growth momentum as the energy price shock puts both the consumer and producer under pressure. Ongoing deflationary pressures from the property sector remain despite early growth prospects in 2026. Liquidity remains elevated following the stimulus since 2024.

China's growth in Q1-2026 expanded at a slower rate of 1.3% (QoQ), as policy support remains prevalent and accommodative. The Producer Price Index (PPI), a leading indicator of inflation, jumped to positive territory, reflecting the shock from the energy prices. Consumer Price Index (CPI) was at 1.0% YoY, while retail sales grew 1.7%. Deflationary pressures continue to unfold as lingering property issues continue to hamper domestic demand, consumption and sentiment. Unemployment was steady at 5.4%.

The tracker is bullish given the policy support and vast amounts of liquidity. The Chinese tracker has been range bound versus the global index for over 6 months, unlikely to deliver outperformance in the near-term. The US and emerging markets have been key outperformers due to its exposure in the AI supply chain.

Global equities have turned risk-on, essentially erasing the losses from the conflict. While bond yields rise due to rising inflation expectations, equity markets rise on the positive outlook on technology. Medium-term outlook may turn turbulent once central banks take a hawkish view.
